ORPEA signatory of the United Nations Global Compact

The ORPEA Group joins the United Nations Global Compact by adhering to this international initiative which aims to promote the application of 10 universally recognized principles orchestrated around the following pillars: human rights, labor law, environmental law, the fight against corruption and against child labor.

This signature confirms the Group's commitment to Corporate Social and Environmental Responsibility, which aims to strengthen the sustainable integration of the principles of the Pact into its strategy by providing a reference framework for its policies and action plans.

Yves le Masne, Chief Executive Officer of the Group said: "By becoming a member of the Global Compact, the largest international voluntary initiative in the field of Sustainable Development, the Group is also highlighting its CSR approach to its 65,000 employees around the world, as well as to all of its stakeholders. A clear, readable and universal framework to encourage the mobilization of all for more sustainable development. »

The United Nations Global Compact was launched in 2000 based on an idea by Kofi Annan, then Secretary General of the United Nations. It brings together businesses, NGOs and civil society organizations in 170 countries.
